Drugs Court.

Cap. 101.

Cap. 31.

8. (1) Where the accused is charged with an offence against the drug laws with regard to a quantity of prohibited drugs which, irrespective of the kind of drug or of the purity, does not exceed the quantity of the drugs listed in the Guidelines found in the Fourth Schedule to the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance or in the Fourth Schedule to the Medical and Kindred Professions Ordinance as a quantity of drugs indicative that the accused should not be referred for trial before the Criminal Court, or is charged with the commission of any crime not liable to a punishment of more than seven years imprisonment, and the conditions referred to in sub-article (2) are satisfied, the Court may, after hearing submissions made on behalf of the accused and on behalf of the prosecution and after hearing any witness which the Court considers it necessary to hear and after consulting the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board, issue a decree whereby the Court will assume the function of a Drugs Court.

(2) The conditions to be satisfied for the purpose of sub-article (1) are the following:

(a) that the offence against the drug laws or against any other law with which the accused is charged is substantially attributable to the grave and medically proved drug dependence of the accused; and

(b) that the offence against any law other than the drug laws with which the accused is charged does not consist of a wilful offence against the person or of a crime committed whilst the accused was in possession of arms proper or with the use of fire or explosives; and

(c) that there are objective reasons which indicate that the accused is likely to be rehabilitated from drug dependence or that he has made substantial progress or effort to free himself of drug dependence.

(3) When the Court issues a decree that it is to assume the functions of a Drugs Court, the Court shall proceed to refer the accused before the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board which shall be entitled to give such orders in respect of the accused as provided in article 6.

(4) In the event that the accused fails to comply with the orders of the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board or if the Board, after examining the facts, considers that the accused is not showing commitment to his rehabilitation, the Board shall, without prejudice to any liability of the accused under article 5(5), recommend to the Court to revoke its decision to convert itself into a Drugs Court and to proceed with the trial.

(5) Where the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board, within a period of not more than eighteen months from when the accused was referred to it, considers that the accused has managed to substantially free himself of drug dependence, the Board shall report that fact to the Court and it shall refer the accused back to the Court.

(6) After it receives the report referred to in sub-article (5), the Court shall order the Registrar of Criminal Courts and Criminal Tribunals to furnish it with a list of all pending criminal cases against the accused, other than cases over which a Court of Magistrates does not have and cannot be granted competence and offences involving charges as referred to in sub-article (2)(b), and it shall, insofar as it considers such a measure to be in the best interests of the rehabilitation of the accused after also taking due account of the interests of the proper administration of justice and of victims, recall all such cases as may fall within the competence of the Court of Magistrates or to which the competence of the Court of Magistrates may be extended so that they will be heard and decided before it if the Court is the Court of Magistrates and if the Court is the Criminal Court they shall be decided before it consisting only of the Judge:

deemed to have been extended by operation of law by virtue of the decree recalling such cases to be heard and determined before it with no further consent or formality being required.

(7) In cases where a recall of other cases is made in terms of sub-article (6) the Court may, notwithstanding any other law, in the event of any conviction, decide not to apply any minimum term of mandatory imprisonment or the exclusion of the application of a probation order or of the suspension of a term of imprisonment applicable to any offence in respect of which the accused is found guilty:

Provided that the Court shall only refrain from applying a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment or the exclusion of the application of a probation order or of the suspension of a term of imprisonment if it is satisfied on a balance of probabilities that the offence of which the accused has been found guilty was mainly attributable to his drug dependence.

Cap. 9.

Cap. 77.

(8) In giving judgment in cases to which sub-articles (5), (6) and (7) apply, the Court may also order that any offence of which the accused has been found guilty, other than an offence for which the accused has been sentenced to imprisonment without the application of article 28A of the Criminal Code, shall not be taken into account for the purposes of the issue of a conduct certificate under the Conduct Certificates Ordinance after the lapse of a period being a minimum of one year and a maximum of three years from the date of the Court's judgement unless the offender relapses.

(9) There shall be no right of appeal from a decision of the Court to assume the functions of a Drugs Court or to decline a request to do so, or from any decision of the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board.

(10) Where the accused has been referred to the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board as provided in this article the accused shall, during the period whilst he is so referred, be brought before the Court at intervals of not more than three months for the Court to be updated, whether orally or in writing, by the Board with regard to the progress of the rehabilitation or treatment of the accused.

(11) During the time when the accused is referred to the Drug Offenders Rehabilitation Board the Court shall continue to hear the case against the accused as though no such referral was made but it shall not pass judgement.

(3) The Minister, after consultation with the Commission for the Administration of Justice, may by regulations extend the competence of the Sentencing Policy Advisory Board to other offences.

(4) Upon drafting sentencing policies the Board shall report to the Minister who shall refer the draft policies for an opinion from the Commission for the Administration of Justice, making such comments in writing as the Minister may deem appropriate.

(4) The Commission for the Administration of Justice shall issue its opinion on the draft sentencing policies within six months from the end of the month during which these are communicated to it by the Minister:

Provided that if the opinion of the Commission for the Administration of Justice is not received by the Minister within a period of thirty days following the expiry of the period of six months referred to in this sub-article, the Minister shall be entitled to proceed to adopt and publish the said sentencing policies or to extend the said period of six months upon the request of the Commission if he considers that such extension is justified:

Provided further that where the Commission for the Administration of Justice has approved a sentencing policy this shall be published by the Minister as so approved unless the Minister, for reasons to be stated in writing, considers it necessary to depart from the approved policy.
